

Position: Foreman

Date: 09/01/2011

Location: Wind Division

Posting #: 12 - 046

Job Description:

- Supervision responsibilities for oversight of one of the teams performing a specific task related to the turbine erection phase of wind power construction
- Establish and maintain high morale while supervising crews, assigning job tasks, and producing highly productive cycle times for labor, equipment and materials
- Demonstrate mastery and safety equipment, materials, processes and ensure all necessary inspections are completed
- Inspect, maintain and demonstrate use of one or more pieces of equipment, and use safety equipment
- Coordination with the Construction Manager to identify and monitor critical items that reduce productivity or complicate scheduling. Help plan the necessary labor, equipment and materials on a daily and weekly schedule
- Must understand the quality assurance requirements for the specific tasks assigned to their crew. Will be responsible to document work processes and inspections to the standards provided by the project QA Manager
- Support the Construction Manager in his responsible for day-to-day construction activities and productivity through planning for each day's work, having alternate plans if circumstances require a change in work sequence, and through continuous evaluation of the effectiveness of personnel and processes
- Focus on safety of crews, and care of large equipment and cranes
- Must have the ability to work with regional ironworker and operator unions
- Participates in daily operational planning meetings with key project personnel to communicate the work plan of the day
- Position requires extensive travel and often long hours

Qualifications:

- A minimum of five years experience in related work. Knowledge of heavy lift equipment and or/ plant operations is a plus
- Experience in a supervisory role in a related construction field
- Good leadership and communication skills as necessary to assign and lead the specific projects tasks
- Ability to maintain written documentation of daily activities
- Flexible schedule, able to travel and work overtime
- Pass drug screen, clean background
- Must possess a valid driver's license
- Full-time position, hourly pay, benefits package, incentive pay

Contact hr@barnhartcrane.com with any questions or submit your resume via email.

Barnhart Crane and Rigging will not discriminate based on race, sex, color, religion, or national origin
Barnhart is committed to diversity in the work place
Barnhart is an EEO/AA/Minority/Women/Hispanic/Veteran Employer