

www.barnhartcrane.com

Position: Staff Engineer

Date: 09/01/2011

Location: Mobile AL

Posting #: 12 - 068

Job Description:

- Perform field walk down assessments of to facilitate layouts of jobs in Auto Cad
- Obtain knowledge of Barnhart heavy lift and specialty rigging equipment
- Function as a field technical liaison for critical lifts risk management functions safety evaluations of projects
- Develop project deliverables such as project drawings to support, proposals and project execution plans
- Work with Senior Engineers in Memphis to develop rigging, transport and securement data and drawings
- Work with Mobile Branch Sales, PM and field teams to develop and execute solutions based results for customers
- Full-time position, salary, excellent benefits package, 401K up to 10% match

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Civil / Structural or Mechanical engineering from an ABET accredited 4-year university with a minimum overall 3.00 GPA
- 2 years experience in Civil/Structural or Mechanical engineering projects
- Strong mathematics and analytical background
- Must be able to work on multiple tasks with little supervision in a fast paced environment
- Good written and verbal communications skills
- Experience with AISC Steel Code and AWS Welding codes preferred
- Experience with rigging, cranes and heavy transport preferred
- Must have working knowledge and experience with Auto Cad
- Must be able to pass a Barnhart administered skills / knowledge test given at time of interview
- Must be able to pass drug test, fit for duty exam and clean background

Contact hr@barnhartcrane.com with any questions or submit your resume via email.

Barnhart Crane and Rigging will not discriminate based on race, sex, color, religion, or national origin
Barnhart is committed to diversity in the work place
Barnhart is an EEO/AA/Minority/Women/Hispanic/Veteran Employer